Competency 3: Multicultural Knowledge

Identify and assess the complexity and multidimensionality of cultural/diversity theories and issues in the field of counseling psychology while working with clients and interpersonal relationships with other students and faculty.

Course Policies

Students are required to complete a minimum of 150 hours of on-site training per semester in an approved practicum site, with 50 of those hours being direct work with clients. Students work at approved agencies 16-24 hours/week, each week of the semester (or until their practicum contract is successfully completed). Students are concurrently enrolled in a seminar which meets for a total of 15 hours. Seminars include written case reports, instructor consultations, and online discussions and assignments.

Assignments - Check online course postings weekly for assignments.

Attendance - Due to the participatory nature of this seminar, students are not allowed to miss seminar sessions except for emergency reasons, and will be given assignments at the discretion of the instructor to make up for ANY missed session. Students are expected to be responsible and professional.

Reading & Discussion

1) The recommended textbook was selected to further students' understanding and managing the various processes experienced in practicum, and to guide students in maintaining awareness of their growth and development as a counselor. It is a supplement to students' on-site experience and may be referred to in online discussions.

2) Students who are preparing to take the MACPCE will post a copy of their written presentation to the online course as assigned.

*All students are expected to read the case presentations and provide feedback.

Reflection Journaling. Each month, students will post a "check-in journal" providing an update about their current practicum site experience (termination, supervision, site issues, etc. should be described). While the form of the journaling is unstructured, students are expected to reflect upon how their practicum experience is influencing their growth in knowledge, skills, personal growth and career development. Journals will be shared only with the instructor. If there is a problem or concern at the practicum site or with the student, the student must contact the instructor as soon as possible rather than wait until the next journal is due.

Case Presentations. Students who have not completed the MACPCE will write case reports and submit them as drafts for their MACPCE written report. Due dates will be provided in the online course.

Ψ Written reports must follow the guidelines for the MACPCE and be in APA format

Hour Logs. Written documentation of practicum hours must be maintained weekly for review at any point in the semester, and for reporting on semester evaluations. The hours logs must be submitted prior to the end of the semester and satisfy the hour requirements as described in the 2009-2011 practicum handbook for course credit to be earned.

Grading Criteria

This course is a Credit/No Credit course. Most of the evaluation for this course will be qualitative in nature. Grades are based 60% on performance at your practicum site and 40% on performance in practicum seminar. Specifically, participation in seminar, effort demonstrated on assignments, and timeliness of assignments are evaluated by Seminar university instructors based on the criteria listed below. Supervisor Evaluations and Number of Hours Completed are the primary measures for practicum site performance. A student will receive No Credit if any of the following apply: 1) supervisor evaluations rate a student below average or identify serious concerns regarding student performance or 2) recorded hours are below the required minimum indicated in the Practicum Handbook.

Library

All resources in Argosy University's online collection are available through the Internet. The campus librarian will provide students with links, user IDs, and passwords.

Library Resources: Argosy University's core online collection features nearly 21,000 full-text journals and 23,000 electronic books and other content covering all academic subject areas including Business & Economics, Career & General Education, Computers, Engineering & Applied Science, Humanities, Science, Medicine & Allied Health, and Social & Behavior Sciences. Many titles are directly accessible through the Online Public Access Catalog at <http://library.argosy.edu>. Detailed descriptions of online resources are located at <http://library.argosy.edu/misc/onlinedblist.html>.

In addition to online resources, Argosy University's onsite collections contain a wealth of subject-specific research materials searchable in the Online Public Access Catalog. Catalog searching is easily limited to individual campus collections. Alternatively, students can search combined collections of all Argosy University Libraries. Students are encouraged to seek research and reference assistance from campus librarians.

Information Literacy: Argosy University's Information Literacy Tutorial was developed to teach students fundamental and transferable research skills. The tutorial consists of five modules where students learn to select sources appropriate for academic-level research, search periodical indexes and search engines, and evaluate and cite information. In the tutorial, students study concepts and practice them through interactions. At the conclusion of each module, they can test their comprehension and receive immediate feedback. Each module takes less than 20 minutes to complete. Please view the tutorial at <http://library.argosy.edu/infolit/>

Academic Policies Academic Dishonesty/Plagiarism: In an effort to foster a spirit of honesty and integrity during the learning process, Argosy University requires that the submission of all course assignments represent the original work produced by that student. All sources must be documented through normal scholarly references/citations and all work must be submitted using the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 5th Edition (2001). Washington DC: American Psychological Association (APA) format. Please refer to Appendix A in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 5th Edition for thesis and paper format. Students are encouraged to purchase this manual (required in some courses) and become familiar with its content as well as consult the Argosy University catalog for further information regarding academic dishonesty and plagiarism. Scholarly writing: The faculty at Argosy University is dedicated to providing a learning environment that supports scholarly and ethical writing, free from academic dishonesty and plagiarism. This includes the proper and appropriate referencing of all sources. You may be asked to submit your course assignments through "Turnitin," (www.turnitin.com), an online resource established to help educators develop writing/research skills and detect potential cases of academic dishonesty. Turnitin compares submitted papers to billions of pages of content and provides a comparison report to your instructor. This comparison detects papers that share common information and duplicative language.

Americans with Disabilities Act Policy It is the policy of Argosy University to make reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities, in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). If a student with disabilities needs accommodations, the student must notify the Director of Student Services. Procedures for documenting student disability and the development of reasonable accommodations will be provided to the student upon request. Students will be notified by the Director of Student Services when each request for accommodation is approved or denied in writing via a designated form. To receive accommodation in class, it is the student's responsibility to present the form (at his or her discretion) to the instructor. In an effort to protect student privacy, the Department of Student Services will not discuss the accommodation needs of any student with instructors. Faculty may not make accommodations for individuals who have not been approved in this manner.

The Argosy University Statement Regarding Diversity Argosy University prepares students to serve populations with diverse social, ethnic, economic, and educational experiences. Both the academic and training curricula are designed to provide an environment in which students can develop the skills and attitudes essential to working with people from a wide range of backgrounds.
